

E EG · G R E S S S

A Collaborative Exhibition by Marie Brett and Kevin O'Shanahan

E · G · R · E · S · S

E · gress is an audio-visual artwork, produced as part of a collaboration between artists Marie Brett and Kevin O' Shanahan and the Alzheimer Society of Ireland.

The artwork creatively explores the concept of absence and presence and how ambiguous loss theory relates to the experience of dementia.

This new artwork is the culmination of a collaborative arts project led by artists Marie Brett and Kevin O'Shanahan and funded nationally by the Arts Council of Ireland and regionally by the HSE South, Cork County Council and Cork City Council.

Screening 2013

West Cork Arts Centre, Skibbereen Arts Festival:
July 26th - August 3rd
Crawford Art Gallery, Cork:
October 18th - November 9th

Membership of the project advisory group, which supported the development of the project included: The Alzheimer Society of Ireland, Cork Arts + Health Programme, West Cork Arts Centre, Cork City Council Arts Office and Cork County Council Arts Office.

Screening of the artwork was been made possible with the support of the Crawford Art Gallery, Cork plus the West Cork Arts Centre in association with Skibbereen Arts Festival.

Further information on the work of Brett and O'Shanahan is available at:

www.mariebrett.ie
www.musicalive.ie