

Response to A Quickening exhibition

"I was really moved by your work; looking at it and hearing about it and most of all I think being able to move through it.

I loved the way you gave voice to equality within difference and difference within equality and the expression of fluidity and necessary tension within relationship.

I came away with a feeling of quickening within my own soul and a real sense of gratitude to you both for finding a language that is more potent than words!"

Written by Julie Murphy
Community Worker HSE South Cork